A soldier just escaped from the Columbia (S. C.) prison, reports seeing a Federal prisoner, who had attempted to escape, so torn by bloodhounds that he died in a few minutes.

It is stated that whiskey is hereafter to be a permanent item in the army rations. This is deemed wise by the surgeons.

There is a place in Connecticut where the Sabbaths are devoted to killing snakes.

Died.

On Monday, January 23, 1865, in White Cloud, Mr. SARAH ANN PIERCE, wife of N. O. Pierce, aged 25 years, 1 month, and 12 days.

She professed religion about four years since, and lived a consistent life. Her illness was short, but very severe, attended with delirium. Her great suffering prevented her from conversing with friends as much as was desired; but to those who spoke to her, as to the state of her mind in reference to death, she gave assurances of a trust in the Savior—that she was willing to depart and be with Jesus. One who knew her best, says she was loved by those who knew her best. Her bereaved and afflicted husband and friends sorrow not as those without hope, assured that their loss is her gain.

A funeral service will be preached in Dorland Hall, on Sunday, February 5th, 1865, at 11 o'clock A. M.
